ABOUT US

Founded in 1895, Leverstock Green FC is a proud community football club based in Hertfordshire, with a long-standing tradition both on and off the pitch. Playing at Pancake Lane, our historic home for over a century, the club has grown from local grassroots football into a modern, progressive non-league club competing at Step Four of the National League System.

The 2025/26 season marked a historic and highly successful campaign for Leverstock Green Football Club, culminating in a record 12th-place league finish the highest in the club's history. Consistent performances throughout the season reflected the squad's togetherness, resilience, and professionalism, with the collective efforts of players, coaching staff, and volunteers establishing a new benchmark for the club's future progress to grown upon.

At the heart of Leverstock Green FC is community. Driven by dedicated volunteers and strong local support, the club continues to invest in ground improvements and create a welcoming environment for supporters and families. This commitment offers sponsors a trusted, visible, and growing platform to connect with the wider Hertfordshire community.
