We provide a range of integrated services, which together form a pathway to support people towards an independent future.

Day Centre – A community-based setting, providing expert advice, where anyone is welcome to drop in, have a shower, a hot meal, some clean clothes, as well as some friendly company.

Outreach – Working with local rough sleepers to build trust and offer access to any services needed – with a focus on bringing people into safe and stable accommodation.

The Elms – A 44-bed hostel providing emergency and short-term accommodation to single, homeless adults.

Crash Pad – Emergency overnight accommodation offered to people when we are unable to accommodate them immediately at The Elms.

Move On – Providing support for The Elms residents into more independent living in shared accommodation.

Resettlement – Supporting clients moving from The Elms or Move On into council, social housing, or private rental.

Foodbank – Providing emergency food parcels and household provisions to local individuals and families.

In the Community – Supporting people in the community during this cost-of-living crisis and helping reduce the need to visit our Foodbank.

Social Enterprises – Developing employability skills and self-confidence in a supportive environment, while also raising income.

We're targeting discrimination in football. Can you help?

We are taking a zero-tolerance approach to discrimination in football. We're calling on clubs and leagues like your own to report hate, prejudice or discrimination whenever you see it or hear it.

For those people who behave in a racist, sexist or homophobic way, the message is clear. Enough is Enough.

When we know it has happened, we can take the actions needed to remove discriminatory behaviour. We'll be doing so through a range of punishments:

- Players will be removed from play and suspended.
 - Teams can have points deducted.
- Grounds can be closed for repeat offenders.

Together we can end hate in football.

Spread the word that discrimination of all forms will be punished. Share with your welfare officers, league and club officials, and everyone across your league and clubs.

We want everyone across grassroots football to know...

ENOUGH IS ENOUGH.
TELL US, WE'LL TACKLE IT.

Visiting Club History:

Historic Ilford Football Club, established in 1881, was one of the most famous exponents of the amateur game, reaching five FAAC finals and earning national acclaim in the process. Its players were household names in the locality, many earned County and international honours, while annual continental tours in which the club took on icons such as Barcelona, Ajax as well as top German and French opposition, cemented the club's reputation. By the end of the 1970's however, with gates declining and cost of overheads at the 20,000 capacity Lynn Road ground spiralling, the club was literally allowed to disappear -although the story doesn't quite end there.

Ilford FC was re-born against all the odds in 1987, despite the abject failure of others including the London Borough of Redbridge to intervene when saving the old club had still been a viable option. A decade earlier, when a proposed new stadium at Fairlop [earmarked to catapult the club into the professional arena] had failed to materialize, supporters were lulled into believing that an unforeseen tax bill was the sole problem. The bombshell came as the club was vacating its ground and its home town, the latter after 96 years and the demolition of Lynn Road came about in a matter of weeks. These actions in turn were the catalyst for ground shares firstly with Leytonstone, soon also Walthamstow Avenue -and as the predictable sale of all three stadiums for housing development unfolded, fans saw a not unpredictable imposition of name changes, mutating into the quite shameless and hated Redbridge Forest FC.

The total identity void of such mergers has never been lost on soccer fans. What was clear was that the final nail in the coffins of each of the three clubs had been struck. National League Dagenham and Redbridge is today the bastard child of the RFFC parasite -and those who fed on the carcass of Ilford FC and its former rivals bear a massive burden of guilt.... We of the three are the only club to have successfully made a comeback

By the Summer of 1987, a campaign spearheaded by Peter Foley, his son Michael and former Ilford supporters had for some time been gathering momentum. Early support was enlisted from the town's 2 MP's, the local press, World Cup referee and Ilfordian Ken Aston, both Essex and London FA's and a number of local Labour councillors. A Public Meeting on June 15th, for which the protagonists hired Redbridge Town Hall played to a packed audience. Pressure on the decision-makers took the form demands to meet face to face, but also of unannounced doorstep calls (guaranteed to place individuals ill at ease!) and a further blitz of correspondence which was to last seven years and consume thousands of man hours, not to mention a rainforest worth of A4 paper (pre-internet!) When it became very apparent that many elected councillors viewed the two main agitators with unease the campaign was stepped up further. Supporters now took regularly to the Council Chamber to air frustration at the clearly private agendas of those who were opposing the re-birth of Ilford FC, while exposure on radio locally and even nationally galvanised support and ideas from those connected to other clubs and individuals from around the country.

Leaping forward in time, the object of the revived club's attentions during this period [1987-94] -Cricklefield Stadium- was for a long while portrayed by the Tory majority in Redbridge as used beyond capacity and unsuited to the demands of a senior football club. These were lies -and lies that were chipped away at, doggedly and relentlessly by the IFC campaigners -and in a manner whereby every rejection merely fuelled a renewed campaign of action. Finally (and it was approximately seven years) the club was granted a belated part-tenancy by the council hierarchy. Two years later and Ilford FC found itself in the driving seat in respect of both Saturday and midweek pitch availability at Cricklefield. As the new century beckoned and with fresh confidence for the future, the club was the sole instigator behind the creation of Ilford Sports Club, providing new changing room, hospitality and hall hire facilities. IFC dug deep furthermore into its own finances to undertake major ground improvements in respect of a new standing covered terrace, a 10-yard pitch extension, new seating to the main stand, turnstiles at both entrances, new perimeter fencing, etc.

On the field, by 2004 the club was back in the Isthmian League -which it had graced for 74 years up until 1979 having been a founder-member in 1905. Eight seasons within Step four was followed by relegation back to the Essex Senior League -and to remark that the club's fortunes since 2013 have been a little unremarkable would be an understatement!

Its fascinating history however was celebrated in 2020, by the publication of a book by Michael Foley and by a Heritage Lottery funded exhibition. The club's prospects moving forward, both commercially and on the field of play, now hinge upon how successfully it can navigate the pressures and pitfalls of the competitive environment in which its level of football presently operates... Its past may continue to attract the curious and the football history buff alike. In other respects Ilford FC's battles in 2024 are those shared daily by rivals near and far.

A few words about KitAid

KitAid is a charity set up by, Derrick Williams MBE, who visited Tanzania on a WaterAid supporters' trip in 1998. Derrick, being a mad footie fan, was amazed at the reception he received from children and adults in remote villages just because he was wearing one of his favourite football shirts (he follows Watford, Liverpool and Chesham Utd).

After two weeks in Tanzania, a flame was lit in Derrick's heart, and he was on a mission to provide kit and equipment to the bare-footed children playing with footballs made of tied string and plastic bags. Twenty-one years on, KitAid has lots of volunteers and to date we've sent out 900,000+ kits to children and adults in 55 different countries across the world.

How to donate

If you'd like to support the KitAid cause, the easiest way to donate your unwanted football kit, in order for us to find it a new home.

Alternatively, if you don't have any unwanted kit, but would still like to support us, we're very grateful for any donations which will help to fund our annual costs as well as support other partnership charities where possible.

We thank you for all your support.

In working in some of the most under-privileged countries around the world, The Football Association is no stranger to seeing the impact the donation of something as simple as a shirt or a pair of shorts can make. KitAid has brought an enormous amount of pleasure and enjoyment to young and old alike through the gift of football kit and has shared the spirit of British clubs and the England team with communities in all corners of the globe. We are proud to be associated with KitAid and wish them all the best in their endeavours for the years to come.

KITaid

"It's more than just a shirt, sharing the passion for football across the World"

KitAid is a charity that finds a new home for your unwanted kit in areas of the developing world where football is loved, but participation is held back by a lack of access to kit and equipment.

Since 1998 KitAid has found a new home for more than 1,000,000 items of donated kit in Africa, South America, Asia and Eastern Europe. The late Graham Taylor was Patron of the charity until his untimely passing in January 2017.

KitAid is run entirely by volunteers and it operates on a small budget. It partners with many different charities all across the UK who meet the shipping expenses to get kit out to projects they are managing.

We can find a home for any type of kit or equipment, all that we ask is that it is clean and in a good state. We take full team kits, individual items, boots, shin pads, balls, training bibs, rain jackets and we have even sent out goal posts. It doesn't have to be from Premier League clubs and it doesn't matter if there is a shirt sponsor.

For further information please visit our website www.kitaid.net or email us at kitaidcharity@gmail.com

Signed Shirt - Auction

This season we will be doing a silent auction each month for signed football shirts. These will be shirts signed by an individual or by a full squad. We will advertise the shirt up for auction up to a week before we open the bidding. The bids will be open for three weeks. After that we will inform the winning bidder.

The shirt currently up for auction is detailed below:-

You are bidding for a 2024/25 Manchester City shirt signed by Phil Foden. The signing was witnessed by Scott McGleish on August 20th 2024.

Bidding is open from 7th July 2025 to 4th August 2025
