We're targeting discrimination in football. Can you help?

We are taking a zero-tolerance approach to discrimination in football. We're calling on clubs and leagues like your own to report hate, prejudice or discrimination whenever you see it or hear it.

For those people who behave in a racist, sexist or homophobic way, the message is clear. Enough is Enough.

When we know it has happened, we can take the actions needed to remove discriminatory behaviour. We'll be doing so through a range of punishments:

- Players will be removed from play and suspended.
- Teams can have points deducted.
- Grounds can be closed for repeat offenders.

Together we can end hate in football.

Spread the word that discrimination of all forms will be punished. Share with your welfare officers, league and club officials, and everyone across your league and clubs.

We want everyone across grassroots football to know...

ENOUGH IS ENOUGH.
TELL US, WE'LL TACKLE IT.

Visiting Club History:

The club's home is in Barton-le-Clay, a village of some 5,000 people just north of Luton. Formed in 1898, the team played inter-village football for the first 50 years until 1946 when it reformed and joined the Luton & District League.

Progress was swift, and in 1954, the club was accepted into the South Midlands League. The team enjoyed only limited success until 1964, when former Leicester City and Luton Town defender Barry Reed joined as manager. Under his guidance, the club was promoted to the Premier Division in 1964/65 and was never out of the top three until leaving the league in 1979. They dominated, winning the title eight seasons out of nine, and famously made a clean sweep in their final season, securing the Premier Division title, the Senior Section Challenge Trophy, the Reserve Division title, and the Reserve Section Challenge Trophy—an achievement that remains unmatched to this day.

The club made its FA Vase debut in 1976, reaching the quarterfinals before losing to Farnborough Town. The following year, they went one step further with a semi-final appearance against Sheffield. The ultimate pinnacle was reached in 1978, with a massive crowd of 16,391 watching the Final at Wembley. The Rovers unfortunately lost 2-1 to Blue Star of Newcastle but cemented their place in local football history.

In 1979, the club was elected to the Isthmian League, finishing a credible 8th in their first season. This was improved to fourth in both 1980/81 and 1981/82, a period that also saw another strong Vase run. At the end of the 1982/83 season, Barry Reed retired, having led the club to its highest-ever position of 3rd and fulfilling his dream of seeing Barton Rovers play in the First Round proper of the FA Cup, a feat achieved in 1980.

A transitional period followed in the mid-'80s, as three different managers guided the team through what became a period of mid-table obscurity. In the 1990/91 season, Rovers qualified for the new Division Two. This marked the final game for manager Mick Huckle, who retired after five years to become General Manager.

The 1991/92 season was unspectacular, with Ray Brandon and Tony Dumigan taking turns in charge before Brian Williams was appointed in May 1992. His success was limited to cup competitions, but the team had its best FA Vase run in seven years and reached the final of the Isthmian Associate Members Trophy for the first time in the club's history. Despite a 3-1 extra-time defeat, it was a moment that galvanized the club.

May 1993 saw the appointment of Gordon Taylor, who guided the Rovers to 4th place in his first season. Building on this, he steered the team to a runner-up finish in 1994/95. This was a remarkable success story, especially after the club's financial position became precarious at Christmas, forcing a difficult decision to cut the playing budget to zero. The loyalty of manager Gordon Taylor and the squad was incredible. They responded by playing their best football of the season, sweeping to nine straight victories to secure promotion to the Isthmian League First Division for the first time in 16 seasons.

Their first season in Division One was a struggle, but lessons were learned, and by December, the team had pulled clear of the danger zone. They also reached both county cup finals, winning the Premier Cup 1-0 on aggregate against Bedford Town.

The 1996/97 season saw Barton briefly top the Division One table, but a winless run led to Gordon Taylor's resignation. Former manager Mick Huckle took over temporarily before the club appointed Gordon Brown as their new manager. Despite a challenging start, a vital 2-1 win in February 1997 broke a 13-game winless streak. The team pulled away from the danger zone and, just like the previous season, ended with silverware, winning the Anglia TV 5-a-side Championship.

Gordon Brown's second season, 1997/98, saw the team achieve a new record finish of 16th. They also had their best FA Cup run in 17 years and secured the Bedfordshire Senior Cup with a 4-0 victory over Potton United before Brown departed to coach in the US.

In April 1998, on Brown's recommendation, former Arsenal and Luton Town player Ian Allinson was appointed manager. He led the team to a new positional high of 15th and a memorable season of three cup finals. The team retained the Bedfordshire Senior Cup and won the South Midlands Floodlight Cup for the first time, narrowly missing out on a cup treble by losing the Hinchingsbrooke Cup Final.

The 1999/2000 season started brightly, with the Rovers in third place by Christmas. However, two festive defeats led to Ian Allinson's shock resignation. Assistant Ian Donnelly took over, guiding the club to a new highest-ever league finish of 12th. The club then endured a turbulent period with a succession of managers, including Noel Blackwell and Alan Biley, before Dick Newman took charge and rebuilt the team following relegation.

Newman's tenure focused on bringing in young players from the youth academy. This young side finished 14th and won the Hinchingsbrooke Cup for the first time with a 2-0 victory over Yaxley. Dick Newman resigned after the season, but the club quickly secured the return of former manager Ian Allinson for his second spell.

The 2002/03 season was a period of consolidation. Promising young striker Drew Roberts came through the youth side, scoring great goals before moving on to Bedford Town. Allinson continued to mold the side on a tight budget but decided to leave for Boreham Wood in January. Former players Gordon Guile and Graham Golds were appointed as joint players/managers. Guile later stepped down due to work commitments, and former manager Gordon Taylor was once again brought in, with club stalwart Tony McNally as player-coach.

The team consolidated its league position, and after a season that saw top goal scorer Paul Barnes depart for AFC Wimbledon, the club won the Hinchingsbrooke Cup for a second time. Manager Gordon Taylor then regretfully resigned, and the club appointed youth team manager Kevin Thoburn as General Manager, with Neil Rodney as coach.

Following Kevin Thoburn's departure, Gary Fitzgerald took charge for his first full season in 2007/08 as the youngest manager in Rovers' history. He brought stability to the club, finishing in a comfortable mid-table position. Fitzgerald continued to build a young, vibrant squad over his four seasons in charge. The 2009/10 season was a struggle against relegation, but the team fought hard and enjoyed a great FA Trophy run. Fitzgerald departed after an unconvincing start to the 2010/11 season and was replaced by Dan Kennoy.

The former player, just 30 years old, assembled a squad that finished a solid 12th in the newly created Southern League Central division. He also oversaw the reintroduction of the Reserve Team. Kennoy stayed on, guiding the side to a respectable mid-table finish in 2012/13 and winning the North Beds Charity Cup. The 2013/14 season was arguably the club's best in years, as they flirted with the play-offs all season, finishing 6th—the club's highest-ever league position—and securing a second consecutive North Beds Charity Cup.

Following Kennoy's decision to stand down, former players Richard Wilmot and Wes Byrne took the reins for the 2014/15 season. They led the team to a play-off final and lifted the Beds Senior Cup with a 4-0 victory. The 2015/16 season saw another new management team, but the club still managed to retain the Beds FA Senior Cup. Former player Jimmy Gray took over for the 2016/17 promotion chase but lost in the play-off final. Mark Boyce took the hot seat for the start of the 2017/18 season before being replaced by ex-Dunstable Town manager Tony Fontanelle.

After a difficult start to the 2022/23 season, Fontanelle and his team were replaced by the joint management duo of Leon Cashman and Jermaine Hall. They managed to keep the club afloat with an inter-step play-off victory. Although Leon Cashman parted ways with the club, Jermaine Hall remained in charge for two more seasons. In his first full season as solo manager, he led the team to a respectable mid-table finish and an impressive FA Cup run. He then took his team a step further, reaching the league play-off semi-final and the Beds Senior Cup Final, though they fell short in both ties. His shock resignation led to Assistant Chris Robson stepping up to the manager's role, where he now navigates his first season in charge.

The legacy of these managers and players is what has shaped Barton Rovers into the club you see today. From humble village beginnings to Wembley finals and historic league finishes, the club's history is a testament to the dedication of everyone involved. Today, we continue this journey together, building on the foundation of those who came before us.

THE NON-LEAGUE PAPER

ESSENTIAL READING FOR FOLLOWERS OF THE NATIONAL GAME

To subscribe, visit www.thenonleaguefootballpaper.com/subscriptions

AH competitive Non-League football, how we've missed you!

It doesn't seem all that long ago Oldham Athletic were partying on the Wembley turf as the curtain came down on the 2024-25 season.

But, for the vast majority in the National League System, a three month wait for league action is finally over.

Steps 5 and 6 are already underway and lots were in FA Cup action last weekend – now Steps 1-4 are also set for the big kick-off.

Of course, this time of the year is awash with optimism for so many. Those exciting summer signings, the new kits, the fresh unblemished pitches – there's not many supporters who don't feel this could be their year.

Will York City be quick to banish the memories of last season's play-off semi-final defeat? How do the Step 1 new boys like Brackley Town and Truro City start? Is the National League South title race going to be as epic as we expect? Who will be this year's Step 4 club that race off into an early lead and canter to glory?

Where will the FA Cup shocks come?

It's all ahead of us and we can't wait to tell those stories between now and May. We'll even be talking about them on our new weekly Non-League Goal Mouth YouTube show. Check that out if you haven't already.

It's not all been sunshine and rainbows this summer. The ongoing Morecambe takeover saga has shown the other side of this so-called beautiful game with their fans facing the very real prospect of not being able to watch their team this season.

There's been plenty of debate across the board – and in our pages – on their dire situation and we all feel for their supporters.

Thankfully there are plenty of success stories of clubs who have come through the other side that loyal Shrimps can hopefully take solace from.

Many of them are kicking off this weekend with a new sense of hope. They say it's time for the talking to stop – but it's only just beginning!

Make sure you check out our famous Non-League Fantasy Football game. Pick your clubs to lead you to glory in 2025-26 with the overall winner bagging £1,000.

There are Manager of the Month prizes throughout the season too – even for finishing bottom!

Check out The NLP this Sunday for your entry form.

A few words about KitAid

KitAid is a charity set up by, Derrick Williams MBE, who visited Tanzania on a WaterAid supporters' trip in 1998. Derrick, being a mad footie fan, was amazed at the reception he received from children and adults in remote villages just because he was wearing one of his favourite football shirts (he follows Watford, Liverpool and Chesham Utd).

After two weeks in Tanzania, a flame was lit in Derrick's heart, and he was on a mission to provide kit and equipment to the bare-footed children playing with footballs made of tied string and plastic bags. Twenty-one years on, KitAid has lots of volunteers and to date we've sent out 900,000+ kits to children and adults in 55 different countries across the world.

How to donate

If you'd like to support the KitAid cause, the easiest way to donate your unwanted football kit, in order for us to find it a new home.

Alternatively, if you don't have any unwanted kit, but would still like to support us, we're very grateful for any donations which will help to fund our annual costs as well as support other partnership charities where possible.

We thank you for all your support.

In working in some of the most under-privileged countries around the world, The Football Association is no stranger to seeing the impact the donation of something as simple as a shirt or a pair of shorts can make. KitAid has brought an enormous amount of pleasure and enjoyment to young and old alike through the gift of football kit and has shared the spirit of British clubs and the England team with communities in all corners of the globe. We are proud to be associated with KitAid and wish them all the best in their endeavours for the years to come.

Kerr Family Funerals is based in Hemel Hempstead, Hertfordshire and offer our funeral services across Herts, Bedfordshire and Buckinghamshire, as well as North West London including areas such as Kilburn, Willesden, Edgware, Wembley, Barnet and Alperton.

Our service is personal, and we work hard to ensure that ‘Care and Quality aren’t compromised’.

We are able to provide services for those of faith or no faith. We have worked closely with families and communities from a broad spectrum of society, including Roman Catholic, Jehovah’s Witnesses, Hindu, Church of England and other mainstream Christian denominations. We have also supported many families in the African-Caribbean and travelling communities.

At what can be the most difficult and painful time of your life, Kerr Family Funerals offer you a service that is compassionate, respectful, discreet and professional. We are with you every step of the way, giving you sufficient time to consider all of your options, and to plan a funeral that is very personal and reflective of the life your loved one lived.

The logo for Sears & Co features the company name in a sans-serif font. 'Sears' and 'Co' are in dark grey, while the ampersand '&' is in a light green color. The logo is set against a white background with a green and grey gradient at the bottom.

Sears & Co

Estate and Letting Agents in Hemel Hempstead & Edlesborough

Sears & Co is an independent family run business with office locations in Hemel Hempstead's Old Town and the village of Edlesborough.

Our experienced team is headed up by Richard Sears MNAEA who has 19 year's experience selling property in the local area. Richard comments 'my team and I are equipped to deal with the sale & let of all types of property including character homes, new builds, and country/executive homes. We can also offer advice in the sale of land & agricultural property'.

We would love the opportunity to discuss any property requirements you may have in the strictest of confidence and without obligation.
